

AXIS Companion

AXIS Companion

Affordable, professional, end-to-end solution.

AXIS Companion is a professional end-to-end solution with affordable cameras, recorders, software and accessories that leverage Axis quality.

The products are user friendly with software and system components that meet the requirements of any small sized business. Secure access to video from remote by using mobile device or PC this end to end solution provides quality security to an affordable price.