

Mayflex Finance Options for your Fluke Networks Tester

MAYFLEX
A Sonepar Company

Finance is available across our whole range of test equipment* with prices starting from as little as:

£214.78 per month

£49.95 per week

We have partnered with Capex Finance, who can provide you with a finance option (Hire purchase or lease.) that helps spread the cost of your new Fluke Tester over its useful working lifetime. Our facilities can be tailored to fit in with your exact requirements to create a solution that is right for you.

To give you an idea of the funding options available, we have provided a typical monthly payment breakdown (for a sample of part codes) over the course of 2, 3, 4 or 5 years depending upon how much time you wish to spread the cost across.

Note: Our finance options are available on a range of Fluke Networks Tester Units. The above tables simply provide an idea of the different options available.

Why purchase a Fluke Tester on a finance option?

Cashflow Advantage

Financing a Fluke Networks tester unit allows for the equipment to pay for itself over the term, preserving your cash flow whilst still giving the benefit of having the asset within the business.

Fixed Cost Promise

All Capex finance agreements are fixed for the duration of the agreement, so there are no surprises or rate increases over the term. This makes budgeting far easier.

Full Rights to the Asset

Once you have made your final monthly payment, you will have full rights to sell, alter or do whatever you want with the Fluke Tester Unit.

Tax Benefits

Leasing equipment is 100% tax deductible as an off-balance sheet transaction, so you can offset the interest against your future taxable profits.

Mayflex Specialist Support

When you purchase a Fluke Networks Tester Unit with Mayflex, whether you purchase outright or opt for the finance agreement, you will have access to our Specialist Support Services team who can provide technical expertise to support you.

* Finance is available subject to status and approval for established companies only (trading for 3 years plus). We can offer new start/early stage companies finance options, however the rates will increase accordingly. We can also offer bespoke quotations subject to individual circumstances. Full written quotations available on request.

 Providing you have also purchased Fluke Gold Support.
